B. POLICY FORMS

Insurance Services Office forms, endorsements and clauses will be used on all FAIR Plan policies, except when in conflict with FAIR Plan Rules and Procedures as filed with the Insurance Commissioner.

C. DEDUCTIBLES

FAIR Plan dwelling and commercial policies are written subject to the selected amount. The FAIR Plan reserves the right to apply higher deductibles at the appropriate rate credits where conditions warrant.

F. OTHER INSURANCE

The FAIR Plan is not intended to replace normal markets. Plan policies, however, may be issued as additional insurance to existing policies, and in such cases, should be as concurrent with such other policies as is possible.

If other contributory insurance is in force at the time of a loss caused by a peril insured under the Plan policy, the Plan will participate in the payment for such loss in accordance with the terms of the Apportionment Clause in the form attached to the Plan policy.

The FAIR Plan does not issue EXCESS OF LOSS POLICIES.

H. PRIMARY INSURANCE

Consideration will be given to requests that Plan policies be made primary under EXCESS COVERAGE. Applicants should clearly state that specified "OTHER INSURANCE" is on an excess basis. If approved, pricing for the Plan policy will be based upon the then current Lloyd's Tables and an endorsement will be added confirming the policy's primary status.
